MASSACHUSETTS BOREVER! THE WHIGE OF THE OLD COMMON. WEALTH ARE VICTORIOUS BY A MA. JURITY MORE THAN THREE TIMES AS GREAT AS THAT OF LAST YEAR!!!

... Monday last is another cheering indication of the onward and irresistable progress of good painciples, is opposition to the corruption and pholligacy of the times The Whigs of the City have carried coary Ward even Ward 2, which has Och sedong held by the Tories, has at length come over to the good cause. The majority in Moston is the largest ever obtained in the City by any political party, and the White GAIN since VOTES.

The majority for Everett last Monday was 3,276

Nett gain. and forty mene less!

Thredghout the Commonwealth the same relative change has prevailed. The lew Counties which have hitherto returned Tory Senstors to the Legislature, and now nenemed. The OLD Colony is regenerated! and that too by the handsome majority of ONE THOUSAND MIDDLESEX has thrown off the shackles of Loco Focoism Her Whig Senstorial ticket is elected by the glorious majority of FIFTEEN BUNDRED! And Bristol too, Judge Morton's own County, has at last released herself from the harness of Toryism, and returned Whig Senathle by simulating of THREE HUNDRED "The good William of Norrolla, by a majority of more than ELEVEN HUNDRED, have given the wandering demagague, A. H. Everett, leave to hunt up a Luco Foco beat somewhere else. They can't accommodate him. Bancroft, the "Democratic historian," and Theodore Sedgwick, have been presented with a like demonstration that they have been "cating of the insane root that takes the reason prisoner."

From the appearance of the votes as far as received on Tuesday, the Whigs had succeeded in electing the ENTIRE SENATORIAL TICKET throughout the State !!

By our latest accounts, 127 towns had been heard from the result in those towns was thus: For Everett. 29:196 For Morton, 19,516

Everett's majority, 9,680 Last year the same towns gave -For Everett, 22.414 For Morion,-21 591

Everett's majority last year, < 820

127 towns.

Everett's majority last year in the whole State, was but little more than FIVE THOUSAND. This year it is said it cannot fall short of TWENTY THOUSAND VOTES !!! HUR. RAH FOR THE OID COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS:

NEW FORK. The Whige throughout the State of New York have resolved to celebrate the great and unprecedented victory in that State on the 22 hinst. It will be a great day. The Whigs of Philadelphia and Boston are to simil Delegates with congratulations and banmts. The Express says - It is to be the greater celebration since the War."

Jacksoman Jacksoman andre, the gardenists of Malue and Massach, Kits have recently return ed through this city from a geological reconnois sance of the public lands situated on the Aroostio, and on some of the head waters of the Peof October, passing up the Schois, and thence by a portage across to the Arcostic, thence down the Aroustic to the St. John, and thence to ... The result of the election in Massaghuetts Houlton and Bangor. Owing to the lateness of the season, and the length of the rout they had to pass over, they were unable to give this section of the country but a slight examination They Tound, however, in passing up the Schois' in several places, the new red sand stone and to the great farming interest of the country states, such as are associated with the coal formation elsewhere, and particularly in Nova Scotis and New Brunswick. Here then, are twodiscoveries of important mineral tresaures, well worth all the expense of the survey, and which will have a tendency to arouse public attention. and direct it to the public lands, which seem almost to have been forgotten. From-conversation with these two gentlemen, they represent the country on the Aroostic as being rich and writter and copyoth of supporting a large and dense population.

It is altogether a limestone region, similar to the Geneace country in the State of New York, and admirably adapted to the growth of wheat. Some of the specimens, which they brought with them, are very beautiful, resembling the best Egyptian marble. There is a population of several hundred, scattered up and down the river, all of whom appear to be prosperous and find no difficulty in raising abundant crops of wheat one individual having raised upwards of twelve-hundred bushels.

In some instances; these gentlemen estimated the wheat crop at forty bushels to the acre some of the stalks measured five and one half the Constitution, and dare to interpret it myfeet in height, and were one inch and a quarter in circumference.

The Aroostic river runs about seventy miles. before it passes the line of New Brunswick, and with its branches, waters between sixly and sex enty townships of land superior to any in the state for agriculture. It will, however, be in vain to point out the fertile soil and the rich mines of these townships, to our immigrating population, unless, there shall be provided some. easy and convenient access to them. THE BANK OF THE UNITED STATES. FOR the seven millions, or thereabouts, of stock held by think for the meetres, and great would be their the country in the late Bank, the Pennsylvania Bank agreed to pay, in-four instalments one hundred and fifteen and a half dollars for every bundred dollars.

The first of the instalments thus agreed upon, has just fellen due. The date of the contract between the Bank and the Government, under which it was payable, let it be borne in mind, was long before the suspensions of specie payments, and the Bank of the United States to Congress to charter a hank. Now, I have might, if it chose, have answered the demand two objections to thus. The first is, if the proof the Government for the performance of this contract in the same manner as the Deposite rejected, and the second is, I believe the power Banks did when asked for payment of the publie money. But did the Bank act upon this opposed, Mr Chairman, at the time, by every principle? Far from it. Long before this in member from his own State, yet he dared like a stalment became due -that is to say five months ago the Bank, being called upon by the Navy Department, to help it out of a dilemma, by an advance of money on account of this contract, knows they want some place to hide their Latipremptly agreed to do so, and did advance the puttan sotions in, and they have justly chosen money, to the amount of haif a million of dol the Vievinia doctrines and Thomas Jefferson's lars, and placed it where the Department had occasion for it; asking and receiving for this nervice only the same interest on the sum adyanurdan the Pank itself had agreed to pay upon ts confract debt to the Government. It has just come to our knowledge that the rerainder of the amount of the first instalment, due by the Bank, bus been paid within the week before last, and in a manner so honorable to the Bank that it deserves to be mentioned to its eredit. The amount paid in advance, as above, (including the interest,) for the use of the Nevy Dopartment, was $510,353 90, 78 m a juni prod in Minte transfer drafte and Tregury was rante, securited by the Brak in the course of its statings, was $1,745,190 16. [From the Madisonien.] WE WIND HE SPEECH

Mr. Witarah Cost Johnson, at the reming arreion of the 12th, me and requested Mr. Park to give way, as he appeared evidently exhanated, and he would pledge himself, and the honor of every member on the floor, that he would be pobecot rivers. They left this piace about the 1st listened to an tomosrow -ith the greatest pleasare for the conclusion of his sale and eloquent discourse. Mr. Pope acceded to the proposal Some gentleman moved that the committee rise, but withdrew his motion at the request of Mr. Johnson:

Mr. Chairman, said he, in thus thrusting myself upon your patience at this late hour, I appeal to the inagnanimity of gentlemen in the hope that they will indulge me for a short half hour. The question before us is all important have the honor of representing that interest exclusively. I said, sir, I would crave your attention for half an hour. When Walter Scott was asked says Now, I have no love for skeletons. How why he had not written the life of Bannaparte in one volume, he said, I had not time. If I should encroach on the time I have limited to myself, I pray you to consider the answer of proportions and beouty? He is now opposed to the Northman writer as applicable to myself, of have not had the time to dive into the subject in all its bearings and consequently shall not be able to express investi in the buefest and most feliolious muttinen-

Before I go uny farther, as we are in committee considering the state of the whole union, will take this occasion of rendering the a mende honorable to the Post Master General. 1 stated in my place on a former occasion that the Post Office Department was corrupted to The very core. In saying so, I did not mean that disclaimed imputing any such crime to that gentleman, but Tor the fact, that I was met with wa challenges, five threats to be cowhided, and i God knows how many menaces to be caned to lenge me, I-would accept his proposition without delay. Under such eigenmeignees, I could not explain. Now, sir, these things have been all arranged, and I take pleasure in saying, that I did not mean any thing offensive to the P. M.  ${f G}$  , personally.

But to the question before us. The conduct of the member from South Carolina, (Mr. Pickens,) and of several Virginia members, appears to me most inexplicable. They come up here with the Constitution in their hands, to preach against the banking system. Well, sir, do they give us a plain common sense view of this instrument? No. sir. They appeal to the opinion of Mr. Jefferson! Now I do protest against This profanation of that great man's name. No one can reverence it more than I do, but I read self according to the reason God has given mi-Not so with these patriotic South Carolinians and Virginians. There were men in Virginia and Carolina, sir, in times gone by who dared to think for themselves in interpreling this instrument. They are gone, and we have in their stead a host of new lights depending for their legislative principles on Thomas Jefferson and the true Virginia doctrines of 1798. Between these two authorities they veer from time to time, and when they no longer suit their veiws. they fly to James Madison. For shame, genthenen! .- What would you do it the paint d'up

They would be in the condition of the received arone of their feasts, where wine and reason flowed in equal streams. They broke their glasses for grief at the loss of the great chief of the Federal party. Various were the laments made by every one of the coterie. Mr Bailey had satfall the while silent. His grief was of the deepest dye. He emptied his giuss lowever, more frequently than usual. At last he broke out withan earnestness of manner that quieted his companions : 4 Gentlemen," said he, "I have more cause of glief than any of you It can never be assuaged while I live!" "What is it what is it?" were the exclamations con-sequent on this declaration. "Whilst General rait what is it?" Hamilton lived, his opinious perfectly accorded with mme. I was then spared the trouble of

So it would be with the members on this floor, Thomas Jefferson's opinions were to be wrested from existence lamentations, but less long their speeches."

Still greater laughter. Give ms, sit, the old feshioned Virginian and Garolinian; who used to think for himself, and dered to exper- his opinions too. When Mr Lowndes was told on this floor that a National Bank was unconstitutional, what did he say? Gentleman have urged me that the Constitution should be so amended as to give the power and the Bank of the United States to Congress to charter a bank. Now, I have posal be made to the States, I believe it will be already exists in the Constitution, - He was man to weak his honest sentiments. He did not, like your madern politicians, seek to get under the shield of Thomas Jefferson. God the Virginia doctrines and Thomas Jefferson's opinione.

In another branch of this Legislature, we have seen, on a most magnificent sorte, the grand play of hire and by E. The gentleman who, within a few weeks past, sustained the principal character, enacted it so admirably inat old Protects, hen caught by the shepherds, was thrown into the shade. I tried to follow him; Mr. Chairman, in his two last speeches, but my bain ber i. bewildered. Before I would follow in his wake, as his friends on this Arer linve diese, I would out my political jugolar! [A hearty leugh, and all eyes turned on Mr Pickens, who laughed too ]

We have Main told, sir, by the gentleman for a Virginia, Mr. Robertuon, that we wie nor in legisdie for posterity of this remind me of a debate in the friel Parliament. Some thember, equally fortunate, had uttered the same unwill doctrine. He was called to account in the severest manner. The Irishman fore to explain, "Mister Speaker, by posthierity

All eyes were turned towards. hun. He blushed to the eyes -pretty good for a lawyer! I was philosophizing, Some members turned pale some red some fidgeted some were silent, and some walked out of the House, when their names were called. But the old hardened sinners, the regular green bag politicians never blenched or blushed. They voted with all the sang froid of the Indian Among the latter, I noticed my able friend, the member from Virginia, Mr Robertson [Con-vulsed loughter. Mr. R. blushed this time ) ... He talks, Mr. Chairman, of dixorce... Why, sir, he tried to marry the people to this same measure in 1834. It was a skeleton, then, he is it that his love has cooled down when the Chairman of the Committee of Ways and Means has given his skeleton Hesti, blood. fair he Sub Treasury museure then, he was for it-Was it because the gentleman, being scarce of flesh and blood itimself, felt a sympathy towards Gen Gordon's hony skuleton ! [Mr B is very thin ] _ Purter me fe. . . such nuption! (Provi Robertson looked as It he could shoot Johnson. Laughter louder than ever.]

Mr. Johnson continued one hour and a half in this felicitous strain, exposing the yanity, folly, ignorance and rescultly of the politicians on the floor of the House 1 have given you the marrowlof his discourse. He wound up by the Post-Master Ceneral was personally liable showing the disastrous effects of Mr Cathoun's to this accusation. Causes of the Inquidition of the Nile mentioned by Mr Buckingham. There are various opin ons as to the courses of the. Inundation of the The most popular and reseasable, that of Halle is this: The Mediterranean is continunly receiving supplies of Atlantic and the inland seas. A powerful-ourrent is rushing in, from East and West, yet the aggregate of water remains the same. This can only be accounted for by supposing that it is carried off by ex-paration. This enormous hady of vapor, then is watted south by the Euraion wind, blowing steadily from the North 10 months during the year, so that Egypt is always overhung by clouds, floating ates great height. Thus they continue till they come in contact with the ridge of Atlas, sometimes called the thack hone of the world," crowned with perpetual snows. The vapor, condensed by the cold, latis in floode, swelling the streams, and ultimately causing the innudation of the Nile. The regularity of the inundation may be explained by the fact, that there are many lakes in the interior of the county, which at a particular season are almost entirely dry; and it is not till after these are re-filled, that the water flows onward to swell the Nile [Journal of Commerce.

CLEOPATRA'S NEEDLES. Mr Buckingham, late member of the British Parliament, who has arrived in this country, is delivering a course of lectures in the City of New York, which are well attended. We take from the Commercial Chiefs a tale of the Advertises the following aneodole, as related by Iffener, Prog. / Freest him in a recent lecture, respecting the obelisks wer. Subsequently the Pacha, observing the high value which the Europeans placed on the antiquities of his country, determined to present this obelish as a mark of his regard to the Emperor of Russia, and accordingly wrote him a letter begging his acceptance of it, and added, that it was waiting his commands. The Emperor, act to be outdone in generosity, replied with equal courtesy, and sent his epistle with a diamond ring and souff por, of the value of $500. The Pacha accepted the present graciously, and pointing out the prestrate obelish to the ambas, adors who brought it, desired them to carry it, with the empliments, to the Empreus of the Russias. Not finding this convenient, they returned home without it Before long the Pacha again presented it in due form to the Emperor of Austria, and received, as before, a heart-grauoff the Billiane Brying to the throts who | presented it, Timee is the obelish, take it away. The same compliment was paid to two other sovereigns of Europe, each of whom showed their rang of the honor in like manner with their predecesiors. NEW-ENGLAND HOUSE, BANGOR, MAINE

AILE Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public that he has removed from the Franklin House to the new and elegant house lately erected at the corner of Harlow and Franklin-streets, about six rods north of the Franklin House. Hoten ders his sincere thanks to the public for their liberal patronage Tast year at the Franklin House, and so licits the communition of it in his present situation, pledging himself to attend personally to the wants of those who may call on him, and employing none but good and faithful servants. He will endeavor to make his house establito any in this city. The New England House is much larger than the Franklin House which enables him to accommodate a much larger company than he could in his former situation. There is a stable attached to the House, furnished with the best of hay and grain. Ostlers equal to any in the State. Also Horses and Carriages of all descriptions, for the accommodation of those who may wish to hire. A Carnage will always he in readiness to take passengers to and from the hout
